Welcome to Harvest Times!

While all the seasons have their fans, some of us are particularly fond of fall.

The humidity of the summer lifts, the temperatures drop to the 70s and 60s — universally comfortable for all humans — the rain tends to abate, leaving gorgeous blue sky, and in all that sunlight, the colors of trees, lawns, harbors, mums and pumpkins become intense.

While winter is only a few months away, there still remain many of the pleasures of the season to be enjoyed. We can barbecue, comfortably walk the beaches, watch the sailboats with their sails standing proud in the breeze and play any number of games outdoors with family until the real chill sets in. We can also sleep comfortably at night with the windows open and the utility bill at least temporarily on hold.

So read through our pages, pick out some enticing activities and go for them. These include fall festivals, sports games, a night at the movies, theater shows, concerts, a visit to a winery, Halloween events, joining a book club, holiday craft fairs, car shows, pumpkin and apple picking, and art galleries.

Or perhaps stop by a farmers market and then try out a recipe perfect for the season.

We here at Times Beacon Record News Media work hard through the summer to present you with these choices for the fall. Enjoy!

Roasted Garlic-Whipped Feta Crostini

Recipe courtesy of The Lemon Bowl

An easy party appetizer, feta cheese is whipped until creamy with sweet and caramelized roasted garlic then spread on toasted crostini.

YIELD: Makes 16 servings

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 bulb garlic (about 12 cloves)
- 4 tablespoons olive oil, divided
- 1 teaspoon salt, divided
- 1 teaspoon pepper, divided
- 32 slices baguette
- 8 ounces feta cheese
- 1/2 cup whole milk
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup pomegranate seeds
- 1/4 cup parsley, minced

DIRECTIONS:

Heat oven to 400° F.

Slice garlic bulb in half, exposing garlic heads; place in center of large piece of foil.

Drizzle each half with 1 tablespoon olive oil, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Wrap foil tightly around garlic and roast until caramelized, about 30 minutes.

Place baguette slices on large baking sheet and drizzle with olive oil. Bake on middle rack until golden brown, about 10 minutes; set aside.

Place feta cheese, milk, lemon juice, remaining salt and remaining pepper in high-speed food processor. Once garlic finishes roasting, add garlic cloves to food processor. Pulse until whipped and creamy, adding more milk as needed to reach desired consistency. Adjust seasonings, to taste, if necessary.

To serve, spread each crostini with whipped feta and sprinkle with pomegranate seeds and minced parsley.

Most anticipated movies for Fall and Winter 2023

BY TIM HAGGERTY AND JEFFREY SANZEL

Filmgoers can look forward to an exciting field of offerings for the fall and holiday season. A wide range of releases promises a host of titles in a strong cross-section of genres including horror, musicals, historical dramas, and family movies. Here are some of the most anticipated movies for the rest of 2023, listed in order of release date. Ready, set, ... action!

A Haunting in Venice

Kenneth Branagh's follow-up to Death on the Nile is A Haunting in Venice, his third outing as celebrated sleuth Hercule Poirot. The Agatha Christie-inspired story focuses on murder during a séance and promises thrills offered up by a star-studded. Along with director-actor Branagh are Tina Fey, Jamie Dornan, Kelly Reilly and Michelle Yeoh, among others.

Rated PG-13 Release date September 15

Saw X

While not for the faint of heart (or stomach), Saw X marks the tenth in the Jigsaw saga. The film is set between the events of Saw and Saw II and follows a desperate man traveling to Mexico for a medical procedure, which is revealed to be a scam. Tobin Bell once again takes on the role of John Kramer/Jigsaw.

Rated TBA Release date September 29

The Exorcist: Believer

David Gordon Green appropriately follows the end of his recent Halloween trilogy with The Exorcist: Believer. Originally, the producers were going to reboot the series, but instead have opted for a direct sequel to the landmark 1973 original. Ellen Burstyn reprises her starring role.

Rated R Release date October 13

Killers of the Flower Moon

It has been four years since Academy Award-winner Martin Scorsese's much-lauded The Irishman. Now, the great director presents Killers of the Flower Moon. Based on David Grann's bestseller of the same name, the film centers on a series of Oklahoma murders in the Osage Nation during the 1920s, committed after oil was discovered on tribal land. The film, which stars Leonardo DiCaprio, Robert De Niro, Lily Gladstone, John Lithgow, Jesse Plemons, Tantoo Cardinal and Brendan Fraser, promises to be one of the fall's best and most exciting films.

Priscilla

Sofia Coppola tells the Elvis story through meeting, courtship, and marriage in Priscilla. Based on Priscilla Presley's memoir Elvis and Me, Coppola creates the private life of the superstar in what will hopefully be her signature brilliance, blending high art with raw emotion. Cailee Spaeny and Jacob Elordi star as Priscilla and Elvis.

'The Color Purple' heads to theaters on Christmas Day. Photo courtesy of Warner Bros. Pictures

The Marvels

The Marvel Universe expands with The Marvels, a Captain Marvel sequel starring Nia DaCosta, along with Brie Larson as Carol Danvers, and Iman Vellani's Kamala Khan (Ms. Marvel of the Disney+ series).

Rated PG-13 Release date November 10

The Hunger Games: The Ballad of Songbirds & Snakes

The multi-million-dollar Hunger Games franchise returns with a prequel based on Suzanne Collins' novel The Hunger Games: The Ballad of Songbirds & Snakes. Series vet Francis Lawrence directs the story that follows young Coriolanus Snow (played by Donald Sutherland in the previous four films) and his involvement with the Hunger Games.

Next Goal Wins

Based on the 2015 documentary, Next Goal Wins tells the story of Dutch American soccer coach Thomas Rongen (Michael Fassbender), hired to help turn around the American Samoa national team, considered one of the worst in the world. (The trailers suggest a warm Ted Lasso vibe.)

Rated PG-13 Release date November 17

Napoleon

Napoleon joins director Ridley Scott with Joaquin Phoenix as the French general-turned-emperor. While the film will include a number of Napoleon's most famous battles, its primary focus is on his tempestuous love story with his first wife, Joséphine (Vanessa Kirby).

Rated R Release date November 22

Maestro

Perhaps one of the most anticipated fall films is Bradley Cooper's biopic Maestro. Director Cooper has co-written (along with Josh Singer) the screenplay in which he stars as the extraordinary and complicated musician Leonard Bernstein. The film also stars Carey Mulligan, Maya Hawke and Jeremy Strong.

Rated R Release date November 22

Wish

Disney's Wish chronicles the origin story of the Wishing Star, with Ariana DeBose, Chris Pine and Alan Tudyk starring in Frozen writers Jennifer Lee and Chris Buck's screenplay. When darkness falls upon the Kingdom of Wishes, a young girl wishes upon a star to save her home, only to have the star physically come to her aid and becomes her sidekick. If the advance buzz is any indication, the animated film could become another Disney classic.

Rated TBA Release date November 22

Wonka

Timothée Chalamet takes on the title role in Wonka, an origin story of the eccentric candy maker. Paddington director Paul King has assembled an all-star cast with Olivia Colman, Sally Hawkins, Keegan-Michael Key, and Rowan Atkinson. The film promises to be a visual feast and a fascinating take on Roald Dahl's legendary character.

Rated PG Release date December 15

The Color Purple

Stephen Spielberg filmed Alice Walker's indelible novel The Color Purple in his Oscar-nominated 1985 film. Now Blitz Bazawule brings the Broadway musical to the big screen, with Danielle Brooks, Halle Bailey, Fantasia Barrino, Taraji P. Henson, and Louis Gossett Jr., showcasing the Tony-nominated score by Brenda Russell, Allee Willis, and Stephen Bray.

Rated TBA Release date December 25

Beyond the Book workshops continue at Cold Spring Harbor Whaling Museum

The Whaling Museum and Education Center in Cold Spring Harbor has announced the schedule for its Beyond the Book fall workshops which will include an Author Talk by Kerriann Flanagan Brosky, author of Haunted Long Island Mysteries.

Beyond the Book workshops invite participants to dive into hand-selected books by museum educators who will explore stories and history related to the museum's collections for a truly unique experience. Each session includes a close look at artifacts, many of which are not on exhibit, discussion questions that invite participants to make personal connections, and light snacks and drinks to enjoy while chatting.

The first session takes place on Tuesday, Sept. 26 at 6:30 p.m. and covers The Apparitionists: A Tale of Phantoms, Fraud, Photography, and the Man Who Captured Lincoln's Ghost by Peter Manseau.

Participants of this session will explore the intriguing history of Victorian-era spirit photography: supernatural 'proof' of ghosts which endured for decades and reflects the human desire to communicate beyond the physical. Historic photographs from the local Jones-Hewlett family will be on view for the group.

"Beyond the Book is one of my favorite programs. We have a regular group of dedicated readers. Discussions are interesting, engaging, and surprising! I love showing people objects from the collections to bring history into the present," said Baylee Browning, Collections and Exhibit Associate at The Whaling Museum & Education Center who will host the September session.

The October session, held on Tuesday Oct. 17 at 6:30 p.m., is a special edition featuring award-winning author and historian, Kerriann Flanagan Brosky, above, along with medium/paranormal investigator Joe Giaquinto. Participants will be delighted with tales of their ghostly adventures which weave local history with the spiritual realm. They will discuss research and investigations behind the making of Haunted Long Island Mysteries, Brosky's latest book. The lecture will include a PowerPoint presentation of the places they have visited and listening to EVP's (Electronic Voice Phenomenon) along with fascinating Ghost Box recordings from their field investigations. Books will be available for purchase and signing following the presentation.

The November session will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 6:30 p.m. and covers The Wager: A Tale of Shipwreck, Mutiny and Murder by David Grann. Participants will explore one of the most gripping true stories from the high seas where in 1742, a ramshackle vessel of patched-together wood and cloth washed up on the coast of Brazil. Inside were thirty emaciated men, barely alive, and they had an extraordinary tale to tell — later challenged by other survivors with shocking twists of disaster, mutiny, anarchy, and murder. With a story based on six years of research, armchair adventurers will enjoy shipbuilding tools from the museum's collection on view to the group.

"It's been so rewarding watching our community of readers grow over the months and develop genuine bonds with one another. I can't wait for this fall's sessions!" said Brenna McCormick-Thompson, Curator of Education at the Whaling Museum.

Beyond the Book club sessions are free for museum members and patrons of the museum's partner libraries, Huntington Public Library and South Huntington Public Library. All others may attend for $15 per session. Register online at www.cshwhalingmuseum.org/bookclub.

The Whaling Museum and Education Center is located at 301 Main Street in Cold Spring Harbor. For more information, call 631-367-3418.
