From the Publisher: The way we were

Dear Reader,
What a difference from 2020. Please read below to remind you of how far we have come & how grateful we need be today.

Please show your appreciation to the advertisers in this joyful keepsake book, for it is they who made its publication possible.

Thank you in advance for your support of the graduates, for the advertisers and for our news media.

It seemed like such a cheat. After 12 years of formal schooling, preceded by perhaps kindergarten and pre-K, high school graduation, senior prom and all the other rites of passage to which students have always felt entitled were falling victim to an invisible bug. The novel coronavirus, nicknamed COVID-19 for corona virus disease, discovered in 2019, was to make 2020 an unprecedented year for change. Not since the United States was deeply engaged in World War II have students graduated into a world so grim. Hand sanitizers, masks, social distancing, sheltering-in-place, ventilators, frontline workers, emergency room beds, shuttered shops, non-essential services, airplane cancellations, testing, vaccines, tracing, were all words that became common coin in a matter of a mere couple of weeks. A microbe that was devastating China and Italy was crossing the oceans and coming ashore here. Life as we had known it was disappearing in the first half of March.

The watershed celebration marking transition from youth to full adulthood, from striving to accomplishment, from studying, writing papers, cramming for tests well beyond midnight to becoming an educated person, was disappearing along with the rest.

We at TBR News Media, coming upon a half century of service feeling the pain as well as sharing in the successes of our residents as we report on our communities, tossed around ideas for how to honor the graduates. We had always printed their names, designated by high schools across our six newspapers, as well as valedictorian, salutatorian and other details of each class. But now they were unseen.

You now hold in your hand a supplement that is a tribute to our graduating seniors.

We hope you seniors know how proud of you we are. It took a village. From our hearts, we thank all of you.

PS- And still are proud in 2024.

Reese, when you entered high school four years ago, you were unsure of which direction to take. Since then, you have done a complete 180. You found your passion in business and grew into a smart, confident, mature, and focused young lady. There are no words to describe how proud we are of you and all your hard work. Reese, that hard work has paid off, and you are headed to one of the best business schools in the country! Indiana University is so lucky to have you. We are excited to see what you will accomplish next. You will succeed in all your dreams and goals—sky's the limit! Go Hoosiers!
